The band's sound and song writing has been influenced by the likes of Matt Schofield, Robben Ford, Counting Crowes, Stevie Ray Vaughan and Cry of Love amongst others.

Singer guitarist Anthony Scott has previously been awarded the South Australian Music Industry gong for both best guitarist and best bass player. He has recorded and toured internationally on the festival circuit with bands like FRUIT and locally with former members of 80's hit band Seven Stories in Sun Theory and more recently Massey Fergusson. As a sound engineer/producer/musician he has recorded over 45 albums.

OFFICIAL

Bass player Bret Hann was an original member of classic Adelaide rockers IronHorse back in the 80's and later founded Deep Purple tribute band Machine Head before heading to the UK to play with members from Hawkwind and the Stranglers. Returning to Adelaide he joined former IronHorse bandmate David Stone in the Smokin' Crocs. He also plays in the Black Diamond Roots band alongside Aussie drumming legend Mark Meyer and has toured with the Lime Spiders.

The unstoppable Jack Thomson on drums has recorded and toured with The Lime Spiders, JAPAM, The Tony Font Show, The Rocketeers and many many other artists. Jack is a go to session player in Adelaide and is on more recordings than is possible to list here. He has played live with international artists Steel Panther and regularly plays across many genres from Jazz through blues, rock and reggae to metal.

The band has its debut album in the pipeline currently and the songs released so far are listed above with links to the YouTube videos. It is hoped to have the full album available before August 2023.

Meanwhile, some tunes for a second album have already been developed and this album will include songs written with a few interesting high profile collaborators.

The band is committed to writing original songs and producing them to the highest standard possible for no other reason than the pure love of writing, playing together and the process involved.
