

63 Deluxe: The Evolution of Modern Blues

A Fresh, Vital Sound Steeped in Tradition, Forged for the Future

63 Deluxe cut a fresh new vital sound, steeped in the classics but riding along a stretch of highway where blues, funk, rock and soul converge to create a fresh original path. An experienced Australian power trio with muscle but also keen songwriting craft and musical finesse, the band delivers a vital sound that honours the classics while pushing the genre into a contemporary realm.

The Power Trio

With guitarist and vocalist Anthony Scott, bassist Bret Hann and drummer/vocalist Jack Thomson, Adelaide based power trio 63 Deluxe are travelling down the road of new contemporary Australian Blues. Born out of friendship and hardship, but continued through the love of music and expression, the guys in 63 Deluxe are bringing their take on the music they would want to hear. Taking influence from the likes of Matt Schofield, Jon Cleary, Jeff Beck, Joe Bonamassa and much more, the band aim to stay fresh and always push themselves musically to new directions, whilst still keeping roots to the past.

Acclaim and Achievements

Since their 2022 debut, 63 Deluxe has maintained a prolific pace, releasing six singles, two albums, an EP, and nine official music videos. Their rapid ascent is marked by significant chart success and international recognition:

- The 2024 debut album reached #2 on both the Australian Radio Airplay and Regional AMRAP charts.
- Represented Australia at the prestigious 2025 International Blues Challenge in Memphis.
- The "Memphis to Nashville" EP, recorded in Nashville, USA, hit #1 on the ABARAC charts and earned praise from industry peers.
- 2026 sees the release of the band's 2nd full length album.

The Latest Sound: "Side Ways"

With the dawn of 2026 came the band's third release "Side Ways" quickly gaining 2nd position on the ABARAC charts. "Side Ways" captures a band more relaxed in its skin and willing to stretch out musically, moving from gritty blues workouts to funk driven grooves and soulful, late-night textures seamlessly. With this latest release, 63 Deluxe continue to carve out their own corner of the Australian music landscape. unforced, unpretentious and built completely on feel.

The enthusiasm to create is strong and the enjoyment of the process is the payoff, promising more electrifying music and continued growth as the boys get back to work!
