The Band

Funk, Rock and Blues play nice together within a soulful feel in the songwriting of 63 Deluxe! This original outfit from Adelaide was born from the love of musical expression and the need to get down and dirty on stage ... and in the studio. The boys are heading into the studio April 2022 to start on their debut album featuring 12 of their best original songs played in over the last year.

Singer/Guitarist Anthony Scott (Fruit, Cow, Sun Theory, Massey Ferguson) heads the group with Bret Hann on bass (Ironhorse, Black Diamond Blues and Roots band, Smoking Crocks) and the unstoppable Jack Thomson (Japam, Tony Font Band)

In the lead up to their anticipated 2022 album release, 63 Deluxe are hitting select stages around Adelaide including The Wheatsheaf Hotel and the Three Brothers Arms to get themselves ready for recording.

Anthony Scott, himself an accomplished studio engineer and producer will track the drums at Twin Earth Studios in Adelaide's south whilst the rest of the instruments will be recorded at Anthony Scotts facility where he will mix and with the input of the band produce the album

Look out on the 63 Deluxe website, Spotify and other streaming platforms for upcoming song teases from the studio!
